

So Comfortable

I like the way that I make you laugh
Non-sweet coffee with half and half
I like the way that I can make you laugh (yes I do)
It's so comfortable - laughing here with you

I'll be home soon so I can kiss you
Is it okay to get a new tattoo?
I'll be home soon to hug and kiss you
It's so comfortable - living here with you

I want to hold you near all of the time
Going 80 miles an hour when I wrote this line
I want to hold you near most all of the time
It's so comfortable - embracing you

Ever since that day at the coffee place
I wake up every morning with a smile on my face
A comfortable welcome to the human race
I'll have a heapin' helpin' of your warm embrace

Pale Moon Sky, Talking Heads agree
This Feels Like Home - Must Be the Place to be Talking Heads and Pale Moon Sky agree
You're so comfortable - I'm in love with you
You're so comfortable – Jane, I'm in love with you
